Road Conditions: Clear

Weather Conditions: Cloudy

Crash Involvement: Semi Truck/Cattle Hauler

Type of Crash: Rollover

Agencies Involved: Cass County Sheriff's Office, Casselton Fire Department, North Dakota Stockman's Association and North Dakota Highway Patrol,

Vehicle No. 1: 2000 International Semi with a cattle trailer

Restraints: No restraints used

Charges: Care Required

NARRATIVE: The 2000 International semi, driven by Jerry Smith, was traveling eastbound on I-94 from Glasgow MT to Villard MN hauling cattle. Near milepost 330, one mile west of Casselton, the semi left the roadway and entered the median. Smith corrected the movement of the semi back onto the roadway, but the trailer overturned causing the truck and trailer to roll onto its driver side. The semi came to rest facing east partially blocking both lanes of eastbound I-94. Eastbound I-94 was closed for one hour fifteen minutes while the crash scene was cleared. Smith was not injured in the crash and was cited for care required. As a result of the crash 22 of the 46 cattle in the trailer died or were euthanized.
